Jamie Hurley

Vice President of Finance at Inspire Brands
Greater Atlanta Area

Summary

As a Senior Finance Executive, I've leveraged my strengths in general management, strategic planning, finance and accounting to advise senior and middle management on strategic opportunities and corporate planning across diverse industries. I've held increasingly responsible positions within corporate, financial and professional services firms with strengths in Capital Structuring, P&L Management, Project Management and Financial Modeling and Budgeting. I've excelled in taking vision and translating to strategy, execution and follow-through and have a record of success in motivating multidisciplinary teams to achieve business goals. Known as a highly adaptable professional, I have excellent interpersonal skills complemented by a Duke MBA.
